

Words of the Mother—II

There is a purpose in life — and it is the only true and lasting one —
The Divine
Turn to Him and the emptiness will go.
Blessings

There is a purpose in life — and it is the only true and lasting one — the Divine. Turn to Him and the emptiness will go.
Blessings.

*

You are here to contact your soul, and that is why you live. Aspire persistently and try to silence your mind. The aspiration must come from the heart.

11 June 1971

*

To be and to become more and more what the Divine wants us to be should be our greatest preoccupation.

25 July 1971

*