

Words of the Mother – III

Behind the appearances there is a subtle reality much closer to Truth; it is that one we are trying to show you.

*

Upon this world of illusion, this sombre nightmare, the Divine has bestowed His sublime Reality, and each atom of matter contains something of His Eternity.

Is it not, for the Divine, a supreme sacrifice to renounce the beatitude of His unity in order to create the painful multiplicity of the world?

Poor Divine! Of what an amount of horrors He is accused.

If these accusations were true, what a monster He would be, He who in truth is all-compassion.

*

It is wrong to say that the world, as it is, is made according to the Divine's Will. If it were so,

(a) All the wickedness of the world would be the Divine's wickedness.

(b) There would be no need to change either oneself or the world.

All things considered, looking at the world as it is and as it seems it must be irremediably, the human intellect has decreed that this world must be a mistake on the part of God and that the manifestation or creation is surely the result of desire, desire to manifest oneself, desire to know oneself, desire to enjoy oneself. Therefore the only thing to do is to put an end to this mistake
