

NOTEBOOK ON EVOLUTION

And this became such an absorbing and absolute experience.

I felt so strongly, so intensely that there was only one thing to lean on, only one thing sure and unfailing: the Supreme.

Everything else comes and goes and disappears. The uncertainty, instability, the fleeting, inconstant character of all things – everything collapses, except the Supreme.

Only one thing does not fail: the absolute All.