

Falsehood is the great ally of Death.

There is one Truth but a million ways of distorting it in the attempt to express it.

*

Hypocrisy and pretension are the homage ignorance pays to the truth.

Hypocrisy and pretension are the first signs of the inconscient's aspiration towards consciousness.

*

Simultaneous with the progress and intensification of the sadhana, there is increasingly felt the imperative need that all hypocrisy and compromise should stop.

*

This earth is still governed by ignorance and falsehood. But the time has come for the manifestation of Truth.
