

Words of the Mother – II

With patience one arrives always.

*

It is not in a day that one can overcome one's own nature. But with patience and enduring will the Victory is sure to come.

*

With patience any difficulty can be overcome.

9 March 1934

*

Everything will come in its time; keep a confident patience and all will be all right.

9 August 1934

*

With patience and perseverance all prayers get fulfilled.

4 February 1938

*

With sincerity, make an effort for progress, and with patience, know how to await the result of your effort.

*

To know how to wait is to put Time on your side.

*

I worry myself over being exact and regular and punctual. If I ever miss being so, even a little, I get upset and feel that I must hurry all the more. In matters of the inner life also, I incline to do the same.

I think this tendency is to be discouraged.

Yes, it is not good to be impatient and agitated — you must do everything peacefully and quietly without excessive haste.
